Josiah Hoskinson was born 1759 Maryland. He died in 1836 and is buried in an abandoned cemetery on farm now owned by J. A. Amos in Jackson Township. He was married his first wife unknown. Children: Thomas; Charles; John; James; Kathryn; Enos. Second wife was Alcy Brent. Children: Josiah; Elisha; Elizabeth; Hugh; Sarah; Isabel married a Quick. Source Page 374, Roster of Soldiers and Patriots of the American Revolution Buried in Indiana, 1938.

At the time that Vera Eliz Hoskins (b.1922-d.1989) joined the DAR, reference was made to this same book.

A more recent listing made by Ruth Pruitt and given to Ruth Hutchison on 12 July 1976, and published in Shelby County Cemetery Records shows a " FROST HILL CEMETERY - AMOS FARM but it does not list Josiah as one of those interred there.

Shelby Co., Jackson Township, Sec 35 "

Notes by Hugh Thomas Hoskins (b.1936)-

My great-great-grandfather, Josiah Hoskinson, was born in 1759 in Virginia. He served in the US.Revolutionary War in a company known as George Washington's Bodyguards.

He is NOT to be confused with others of the same name who variously died in Ohio and/or were paupers or in an asylum of any sort.

"Our" Josiah married Isabell Evans in 1795 in what is now Monongalia, West Virginia. They had 6 children, and migrated to central Kentucky. She died in Floyd Co., Ky in 1814.

There is a very small town named Hoskinston in eastern Ky. near the No.Carolina border. NO connection has ever been made with it.

Josiah was again married in 1815 in Washington Co., Ky., to Alcy Brent, the widow of Jacob Cutsinger (with whom she had had 3 children); Josiah and Alcy had 6 children -- the second of whom was my great-grandfather, Hugh Abel Hoskinson.

They moved in the Washington, Nelson, Hardin Counties area of Ky. and eventually settled in the Edinburg, Indiana, area where Josiah died in 1836. He was buried in a small private cemetery on the J.A.Amos farm; in the last half of the 1900s the gravestones were moved about 30 feet to the south to build a house. Some are readable; some have been vandalized; Josiah's is not obvious, but it was noted in an earlier published reading of the stones.

Hugh Abel Hoskinson, was born in 1824 in Ky. In time he shortened his name to Hoskins. As far as we know, none of his siblings did the same. He died in the area of Edinburg, Indiana, and is buried in what at this time is the St.George Luthern Churchyard east of Edinburg.

Hugh Abel Hoskins and his wife Elizabeth Snapp had 12 children; the family name was carried by blood only thru his sons John (known very affectionately to my dad as "Uncle John" and David Julius Hoskins, my grandfather. Another son, Josiah (known as Joe) adopted a boy whow he named William or Billy who was last seen by the family to have passed thru Columbus, In., in the 1980s. David had only one son, Hugh Adam Hoskins; he had only one son, Hugh Thomas Hoskins; he had only one son, Hugh Douglas Hoskins (b.1971). John had 12 children: 7 boys and 5 girls. The only other Hoskins male at my generation level is Fred John Hoskins, Jr., (b.1938) and he has one son, David Lee Hoskins (b.1969). To David and Doug we are dependent to continue the family name.

There is a Bible which belonged to John's son Grover which was passed to his son James and thence to his daughter Sharon. Have not yet seen or confirmed the contents; it may have belonged to John; not sure yet.

The general consensus is that the name Hoskins originated as Roger, which morphed to Rodge, Hodge, and on to Hodgkins, and Hoskins, and Hoskinson (with the Haskins and Huskins somewhat related, too) -- likely mostly in England (or the British Isles, anyway) -- before coming to the Western Hemisphere where is was again shortened to Hoskins. There are still a swarm of them in Floyd, Washington, Nelson, and Hardin Counties area of KY; some of which are likely more closely related than others, but we have NO firm connection.
